
Four task-level observations; observed differences are not confidence intervals.
Zero-centered symmetric scale. Heights, mass and count differences remain in the paired table.